

CLARA C. ROBINSON

I, CLARA C. ROBINSON, of Harford County, in the State of Maryland, do make, publish and declare this as and for my last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all Wills by me heretofore made, and do hereby give and bequeath as follows:

Item 1: To my daughter, M. Madeleine O'Neill, my mahogany drop-leaf table now in her possession, my mahogany sewing table, my antique hall table, my Persian Rugs, my large silver tray, my tufted love seat and my sapphire ring and diamond ring.

Item 2: To my daughter, Elizabeth J. McGinnis, my mahogany drop-leaf table in the dining room my tea table, my antique mirror in the library and my candelabra.

Item 3: To my son, Thomas Hall Robinson, Jr., my sideboard and two knife boxes and my grandfather's clock.

Item 4: To my granddaughter, Lucille Robinson Close, my antique inlaid table, my piano, my two antique tufted seat chairs, my diamond ear rings, my bureau with oval glass, my dining room chairs, my octagonal mahogany table, my silver service and all my flat silver.

Item 5: To my sister, Laura Cain, my antique drop-leaf table in the parlor and the Windsor desk which now stands in my bedroom.

Item 6: To my sister Fanny Cain, my buffet.

Item 7: To my granddaughter, Betty O'Neill, my single diamond ring.

Item 8: To my granddaughter, Peggy O'Neill, my writing desk.

Item 9: All the rest and residue of my household furniture and effects, I give and bequeath to my daughters, M. Madeleine O'Neill and Elizabeth J. McGinnis, and my granddaughter, Lucille Robinson, to be divided among them in such fair and equitable manner as my Executor hereinafter named may determine.

Item 10: I direct my Executor hereinafter named to divide the whole of my net estate into five (5) equal parts; one part whereof I give, devise and bequeath to my granddaughter, Lucille Robinson Close; and as to the remaining four-fifth (4/5) of said residue of my estate,